OPINION

Zoning Text Amendment No. 06-14 was introduced on May 9, 2006 to establish a Transit Oriented Mixed Use/Transfer of Developments Rights Zone (TOMX/TDR) and creating development standards and procedures for the TOMX/TDR Zone.

The Montgomery County Planning Board in its report to the Council recommended that the text amendment be approved.

The County Council held a public hearing on June 13, 2006, to receive testimony concerning the proposed text amendment. The text amendment was referred to the Planning, Housing, and Economic Development Committee for review and recommendation.

The Planning, Housing, and Economic Development Committee held a worksession on July 10 and September 18, 2006 to review the amendment. The Committee recommended changes to clarify the text amendment and conform the text amendment to the intent of the Shady Grove Sector Plan.

The District Council reviewed Zoning Text Amendment No. 06-14 at a worksession held on October 3, 2006, and agreed with the recommendations of the Planning, Housing, and Economic Development Committee.

For these reasons and because to approve this amendment will assist in the coordinated, comprehensive, adjusted and systematic development of the Maryland-Washington Regional District located in Montgomery County, Zoning Text Amendment No. 06-14 will be approved as amended.

14 59-C-13.241. Method of development. The following 2 methods of 15 development apply in any TOMX/TDR zone:

- 16
17 (a) Standard method of development. Development under the 18 standard method for any TOMX/TDR zone must comply with 19 the requirements and procedures for development and density
20 limitations contained in the corresponding TOMX zone, except 21 that greater residential densities may be permitted pursuant to 22 Section 59-C-13.242. Development must also conform to the 23 special regulations for developments in a TOMX zone using 24 transferable development rights contained in Section 59-C-25 13.243.

(b) Optional method of development. Development under the optional method for any TOMX/TDR zone must comply with the requirements and procedures for development and density limitations contained in the corresponding TOMX zone and must ~~[[be]]~~ conform to the numeric limits in ~~[[guidelines established in]]~~ the applicable master or sector plan concerning floor area ratio, dwelling units per acre, building heights and setbacks. In all other respects the development must be consistent with the master or sector plan, however greater residential densities may be permitted pursuant to Section 59-C-13.242. Development must also conform to the special regulations for developments using transferable development rights contained in Section 59-C-13.243. The special regulations require ~~[[compliance with the density and any numerical limitations]]~~conformance to the numeric limits in the applicable master or sector plan concerning floor area ratio, dwelling units per acre, building heights and setbacks. In all other respects the development must be consistent with ~~[[other guidelines contained in]]~~ the applicable master or sector plan ~~[[approved by the district council]]~~.

59-C-13.2431. Applicability. The following procedures and regulations apply to the transfer of development rights to land classified in a TOMX/TDR zone. The Planning Board may approve subdivision of such land at densities not to exceed the maximum density permitted in the applicable TOMX/TDR zone [[and]]. The development must conform to the numeric limits in the applicable master or sector plan concerning floor area ratio, dwelling units per acre, building heights and

61 setbacks. In all other respects the development must be 62 consistent with [[conforming to the guidelines contained in]]
63 the applicable master or sector plan. Any increase in the 64 residential FAR above the residential FAR and dwelling units
65 per acre allowed under the standard and optional methods of 66 development of 59-C-13.215 and 59-C-13.23 must not exceed 67 20% of the maximum dwelling units per acre or FAR permitted
68 without TDRs and must be based on a ratio of one single-family
69 dwelling unit for each TDR, and 2 multi-family dwelling units
70 for each TDR; however, within a designated Metro Station
71 Policy Area, a ratio of three multi-family dwelling units for 72 each TDR and two one-family [[detached]] units for each TDR
73 applies.

74
75 59-C-13.2432. General provisions.

76
77 (a) A development right must be created, transferred and
78 extinguished only by means of documents in a recordable
79 form approved by the Planning Board, including an 80 easement and appropriate releases. The easement must 81 limit the future construction of one-family dwellings on a 82 property in the RDT zone to the total number of 83 development rights established by the zoning of the 84 property minus all development rights previously
85 transferred in accordance with this section, the number of 86 development rights to be transferred by the instant

87 transaction, and the number of existing one-family
88 detached dwellings on the property.

89
90 (b) The transfer of development rights must be recorded
91 among the land records of Montgomery County,
92 Maryland.

93
94 (c) A property developed under a TOMX/TDR zone must 95 conform to the requirements of Chapter 25A requiring 96 MPDU[(')]s.

97
98 (d) A property developed with transferable development
99 rights must include MPDUs as required by Chapter 25A
100 and workforce housing units as required by Section 59-
101 A-6.18 and Chapter 25B. The number of MPDUs and 102 any resulting bonus density must be calculated after the 103 base density of a property has been increased by a 104 transfer of development rights. The calculation of the 105 number of workforce housing units must be based on the 106 total number of market dwelling units in the development
107 including any transfer of development rights, but not 108 counting any MPDUs or resulting bonus density units.
109 The MPDU density bonus does not require the 110 acquisition of additional development rights.

59-C-13.2433. Development approval procedures under the standard and optional method of development.

(a) A request to use transferred development rights under the standard or optional method must be in the form of a preliminary subdivision plan in accordance with Chapter 50.

(b) A site plan must be submitted and approved in accordance with the provisions of Division 59-D-3.

(c) The Planning Board must approve a request to use transferred development rights if the request:

(1) is in accordance with provisions of this chapter;

(2) is in accordance with Chapter 50, title
"Subdivision of Land";

(3) conforms to the numeric limits in the applicable
master or sector plan concerning floor area ratio, dwelling units per acre, building heights, and setbacks; in all other respects the development is consistent with [[other recommendations of]] the applicable master or sector plan ; and

(4) achieves a desirable development compatible with both site conditions and surrounding existing and future development.

(d) Prior to Planning Board approval of a final record plat for a subdivision using transferred development rights, an easement to the County in the form required by Section 59-C-13.2432 (a) above limiting future construction of dwellings on a property in the RDT zone by the number of development rights received must be recorded among the land records of Montgomery County, Maryland.

(e) A final record plat for a subdivision using transferred development rights must contain a statement setting forth the development proposed, the zoning classification of the property, the number of development rights used, and a notation of the recordation of this conveyance required by Section 59-C-13.2432(b).

59-C-13.2434. Development standards applicable to the standard and optional method of development.

(a) The final density achieved for any property located in a TDR receiving area developed under the procedures herein must be determined by the Planning Board and must conform to the site plan provisions (Division 59-D-3) and subdivision regulations (Chapter 50).

(b) In making the determination as to the final density, the Planning Board will consider the following factors:

(1) [[provides housing types]] conforms to the numeric limits in the applicable master or sector plan concerning floor area ratio, dwelling units per acre, building heights, and setbacks; in all other respects the development is consistent with the approved master or sector plan ;

(2) preserves environmentally sensitive and priority forest areas, and mitigates unavoidable impacts on the natural environment;

(3) facilitates good transit serviceability and creates a desirable and safe pedestrian environment; and

(4) achieves compatibility with surrounding land uses[[; and]] ;

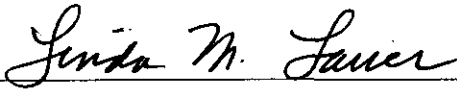

[[5) conforms is to the relevant master or sector plan approved by the District Council]]
